A CONVERSATION WITH HIS EXCELLENCY TAHIR AL MASRI

Minister of Foreign Affairs of Jordan

You are cordially invited to a conversation with Jordan's Minister of Foreign Affairs Tahir al Masri on Monday, March 18 at 9:45 a.m. in the AEI Boardroom. The Minister will discuss recent developments in the Middle East and Jordan's view of the peace process.

Tahir al Masri has served as Jordan's Ambassador to the United Kingdom (1983), France (1979 - 1983), and Spain (1975 - 1978). He served concurrently in 1979 - 1980 as Jordan's representative to the European Economic Community. He assumed the position of Minister of Foreign Affairs in January, 1984.

Mr. al Masri began his career at the Central Bank of Jordan (1965 - 1973) after graduating from North Texas State University where he studied commerce. He was appointed to the Chamber of Deputies as a representative from the West Bank city of Nablus (May, 1975) where he was born. He became Minister of Occupied Territories in 1975 prior to his diplomatic career.

We hope that you will be able to join us for this conversation with His Excellency Tahir al Masri. Please respond as soon as possible by calling Joseph Ginter at 862-6462.
